

6516207986.txt

As XM is a subscription service, it should be my right to receive programming that I want. I live in a rural area and there is only a handful of stations that are audible over a wide area.
I do not want lobbyists telling me what I should listen to.